

Registering for MGA Member Days Online

Important! All Member Day golfers MUST register with the MGA Online Registration Area BEFORE the captain signs up his or her team. (Each player must follow steps 1-4 below.)

Players can register with the MGA Online System before Event Sign Up begins.*

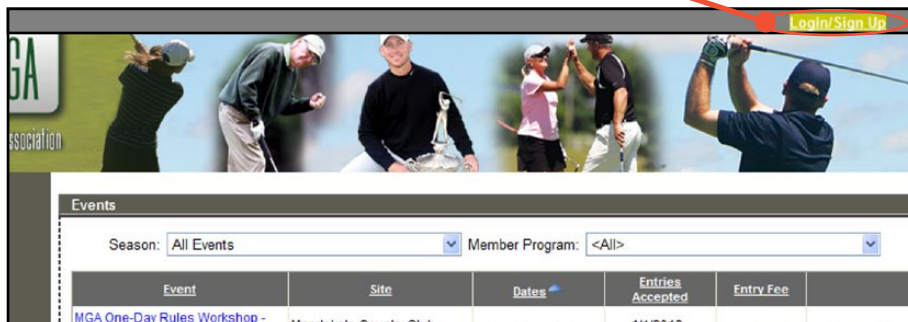

1. From the Member Day homepage

click on "Online Registration" and you will be taken to the MGA Online Registration Area.

2. From the MGA Online Registration Area

click on "Login/Sign Up" located in the upper righthand corner to be taken to the Login screen.

3. From the Login screen enter your existing username and password OR register if you are new to allow complete access to this site.

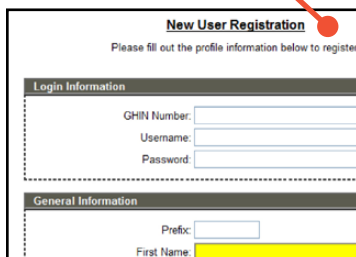

4. Use the "Season Filter" to find "Member Days" narrowing the event list down to just the current Member Day events available.

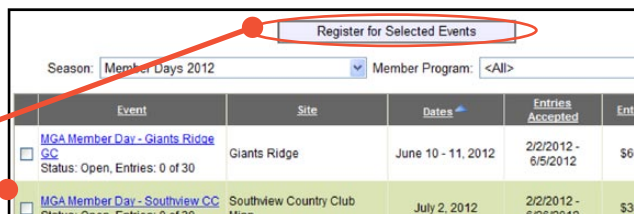

5. View Your Profile or Create Your Profile.

Verify that your profile information is correct by clicking on "Edit Profile" OR create your profile if registering with this site for the first time.

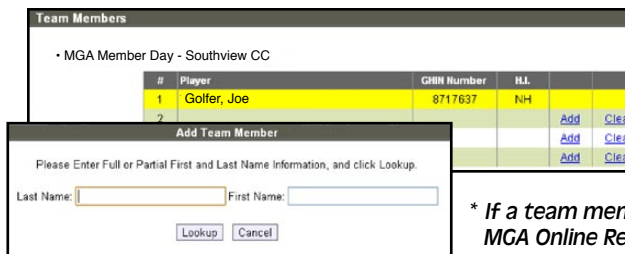

6. Team Captain Selects Event(s) -

Click on the box next to your event(s) and your selection(s) will highlight yellow. Then click the gray "Register for Selected Events" box at the top to take you through the registration process which will include adding team members.

7. Team Captain Adds Team Members

Click "Add" to be taken to a Lookup area to find your registered team members* to add to your team.

 If a team member has not registered with the MGA Online Registration Area they will not be found.*

8. Team Captain Completes Registration and Payment

Follow the prompts taking you through the rest of the sign up and payment process and each team member will receive an email confirmation.

The team captain can register for an Member Day without a full team at time of entry, but will be charged the full fee. Player(s) can be added at a later date.

Only the team captain has the ability to substitute team members or to withdraw the team if that becomes necessary.
