2024 Women's Amateur Four-Ball Championship

LAST YEAR'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Chipping in for birdie on the 36th hole, secured a two-stroke victory for University of St. Thomas teammates Emma Davies and Katie Foley, shooting 4-under 140 at Faribault Golf Club to claim the 2023 Minnesota Golf Association Women's Amateur Four-Ball Championship. Davies and Foley edged fellow Tommie teammates Isabelle Lynch and Courtney Wedin, as well as Minnesota State University-Mankato golfers Anna Cihak and Samantha Youngquist to earn their first state championship wins.

Davies started the scoring during the final round by sinking her birdie chance from six feet at the par-5 third, moving her and Foley to 7-under for the championship.

Taking advantage of the final par-5 on the front side, Davies and Foley both recorded birdie, extending their lead to six heading to their final nine holes.

But what plagued the two during their opening round, followed them to the second round as Davies and Foley struggled to find fairways and greens, magnified by a double-bogey at the 12th.

Davies and Foley continued to watch their lead shrink, playing their next five holes in 3-over, carrying a one-stroke advantage to the final hole.

Missing the final green short-left with her third, Davies' chip from 25 feet found the bottom of the cup to close out the championship with a final-round 74 for a two-stroke victory.

Improving on a third-place finish at Monticello Country Club in 2022, Davies and Foley both earn a state win for the first time in their amateur careers.

Fellow Tommie teammates Lynch and Wedin bounced back from a 1-over 73 during the opening round by firing a bogey-free 3-under 69 in the final round to earn a share of second at 2-under 142.

The two started quickly with three birdies over their first five holes to move within four shots of the lead, but were unable to card another birdie over their last 13 holes to finish two shots back.

Beginning their final round six shots off the lead, Minnesota State University-Mankato teammates Anna Cihak and Samantha Youngquist played the first nine holes of their second round in 1-under, but made a late push with an eagle at the 15th, followed by a birdie at the 16th to pull within one shot of the lead.

Jovie Ordal and Lily Vincelli entered the final round two shots off the lead thanks to a 4-under 68 to open the championship, but were unable to put any round numbers on the scorecard in the final round.

The two would card four bogeys during their final round to shoot 4-over 76 to finish in fourth place at even par 144.

Emma Davies and Katie Foley, the 2023 MGA Women's Amateur Four-Ball champions, return to defend their title at LeSueur Country Club this year.
